

BERLIN PRESS CALLS GERMAN REPLY SUICIDE OF THE NATION

The success of the counter proposals, despite what it calls "Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau's" submission, and the Tagliche Rundschau says: "The German reply is fully as depressing as the Entente terms."

According to a semi-official statement the full indemnity which Germany offers to pay in her counter-proposals to the peace terms will include sums going to Belgium against advances by the Allies and also the value of all military and civil property surrendered by Germany since the armistice.

It is further conditioned upon territorial arrangements. That is, if the imperial territory is reduced, the sum to be paid must be correspondingly distributed. Alsace-Lorraine and Posen, for instance, bearing their proportionate shares.

The semi-official Wolff Bureau is circulating a story under an Amsterdam date which asserts the United States is "becoming increasingly dissatisfied with developments at Versailles," and that there is an "unmistakable strengthening of the inclination for an understanding with Germany through a modification of the peace terms."

A correspondent of a German newspaper at Versailles claims the Poles are "especially favored by the Entente because they propose to take over Russia's debt to France, which totals 20,000,000,000 francs."

BERLIN, May 29.—"Does Wilson intend to establish in Europe the slavery that Lincoln abolished?" Theodore Wolff demanded in an article in the Tagliche Rundschau, defending Germany's counter-proposals to the peace treaty.

The counter-proposals, Wolff asserted, represent the democratic idea of right, instead of the militaristic national conception that it is Germany's duty to heal what can be healed in Belgium with money.

"If reason prevailed in Paris," said the Vorwarts, "the Entente would have the counter-proposals which offer a preliminary note, a prospect of settlement and demobilization. But reason does not prevail, so the Entente may try to force their terms and get our signature to clauses which can not be fulfilled, and a new crisis will result."

The Tagliche Rundschau ridiculed quotations from President Wilson's speeches in the counter-proposals, saying his conscience had not permitted him to overstep his promises that an awakening could not be expected now.

KAISER MAY SURRENDER TO A NEUTRAL TRIBUNAL ON ADVICE OF FRIENDS

Hopes Thus to Escape Trial by Allied Court for Starting War.

BERLIN, May 29.—Members of the German court party who still are loyal to the ex-Kaiser are reported today to have laid before the former monarch a suggestion that he voluntarily surrender himself for trial before a neutral high court on the charge of having brought about the war. The ex-Kaiser is said to have looked with favor upon the plan, hoping thus to avoid trial before an Inter-Allied Commission.

The Ebert Government has been approached on the question, and has replied that it will not surrender any German citizen contrary to recognized law, but that it cannot prevent Wilhelm, as a private citizen, from so acting if he sees fit.

U. S. ENVOY'S DISCLAIMER.

Henry White knew nothing of Irish Mission to Paris.

PARIS, May 29.—Frank P. Walsh, one of the representatives of Irish societies in the United States who have been in Paris in connection with the effort to secure a safe conduct for Irish Sinn Féin representatives to come to Paris has received from Henry White, Republican member of the American delegation to the Peace Conference, a letter in which Mr. White disclaims any responsibility for the outcome of the Irish mission's efforts.

Mr. White in his letter declares that he had taken part in no efforts towards bringing Mr. Walsh and his colleagues in touch with the British, and that he was not aware of the incident until a few days ago.

12,000 SOLDIERS BACK FROM FRONT; 10,000 NEAR PORT

Kronland Brings 3,811 Including Joan of Arc Division—Doughboys Coal Ship.

More than half of the 22,078 troops due here to-day from France on ten transports reached port early this afternoon, the Kronland with 3,811 troops, from St. Nazaire, bringing the largest number of troops of the five transports which came into the harbor. Before she reached her pier at Hoboken the Cape May was disembarquing her 1,920 men. The Italia, from Marseilles, arrived with 1,067 troops and docked shortly after noon. The Julia Luckenbach arrived from Bordeaux with 5,725 men of the 10th Infantry, 7th Division. The Pastores was reported off Sandy Hook with 2,129 men from St. Nazaire.

The Kronland brought another contingent of the 7th (Joan of Arc) Division, principally men from Pennsylvania. Major Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn, commander of the division and one of the two commanders who brought back the organizations with which they sailed from this country, returned with his command. Before sailing Gen. Kuhn was decorated with full military honors with the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, of which he was made a commander, and with the French Cross of War. The ceremony took place at Nantes, with two French battalions and a detachment of U. S. Marines occupying three sides of a square and the Legion of Honor members making the fourth.

The citation paid a high tribute to the 7th Division, reciting that it showed the spirit of sacrifice. It took leave of his men at the pier. Gen. Kuhn said that the Division had lost 1,246 killed and 6,194 wounded.

Major Sydney L. Smith was the only New York man on the transport. He is a well known mining engineer, who dropped his business and gave up important contracts to go to the war. For two months he was on the War Damage Board, which sat with the Peace Conference.

On the Kronland were the 304th Engineers, Headquarters, Sanitary Detachment, Train Headquarters, Company and Companies A to F, inclusive; 20th Engineers, 7th Battalion, and Headquarters Medical Detachment and Companies 19, 20 and 21; 501st Engineers, Headquarters and Medical Detachments and Companies B and D; 70th Division Headquarters and Motor Transport Detachment; 11th Infantry Headquarters, 3d Battalion, Sanitary Detachment, Companies L and M and Detachment Company K; 17th Company, 2d Regiment, Air Service Mechanics; 18th Company, 2d Regiment, Air Service Mechanics, and the 648th Aero Squadron.

The Italia brought home 1,044 officers and men and the story of a characteristic incident at Gibraltar illustrating the anxiety of the American soldiers to get back to the United States in a hurry. It appears that the Italia was unable to get coal at Marseilles and put into Gibraltar for a supply.

On their arrival at Gibraltar the officers of the ship found the Spaniards stevedores too tired to work; they having attended a bull fight somewhere in Spain the day before. The next day one of the most popular stevedores got married and the whole outfit of stevedores attended the wedding. The third day was a fiesta in honor of some saint and the stevedores would not work and the captain of the Italia was notified on the morning of the fourth day that the fiesta had been celebrated so thoroughly as to call for a day of rest. The soldiers had been impatiently waiting three days and wanted to be on their way. A committee of them called on the captain and volunteered to coal the ship. Several hundred of the huskiest doughboys turned in and in eight hours they broke all port records by putting 1,000 tons of coal in the bunkers of the Italia and the old ship steamed out of Gibraltar that night.

All troops on the Italia were casuals except 425 men of the 219th Field Signal Battalion of the First Army. In this outfit was Company A, which is composed of sixty trained employees of the Western Electric Company, who were organized by Capt. George C. Pratt, secretary of that corporation. Company A did all the radio work for the First Army in the St. Mihiel and Argonne drives.

Private William M. Ferguson of No. 2687 Third Avenue, Company C, 102d Ammunition Train, 27th Division, and Private Matt Donnelly of the Bronx, who was in the 7th Division, came home on the Italia and they were probably the last members of these two divisions to leave France. Both have been in hospitals.

JERSEY CITY TAKES HOLIDAY TO GREET HER WAR HEROES

Soldiers Parade Over Carpet of Flowers as Girls Sing Patriotic Songs.

Jersey City took a holiday to-day to extend an enthusiastic and noisy welcome to Hudson County troops—the 321st Infantry of the 78th Division—who have returned from overseas and are awaiting discharge at Camp Dix.

The demonstration was designed to be historic in Jersey City and it lived up to expectations. The returned heroes were cheered by thousands as they passed in parade. Before the old 4th Regiment Army they were greeted by a throng of school children singing patriotic songs, and from there, for a distance in Bergen Avenue, they passed over a carpet of flowers scattered by girls in white. Aerial bombs and whistles kept up an ear-splitting salvo.

The parade was headed by a detachment of mounted police. Following was a squad of patrolmen; then Mayor Frank Hague, the five Commissioners and citizens who have been active in war work. The Police Band was next, followed by automobiles carrying disabled men. Col. Anderson of the regiment, adjutant, and his men completed the line. The route traversed was about five miles. It is estimated 3,000 marchers were in line.

The troops detained at the Exchange Place Terminal, where the parade formed. In front of the City Hall in Grove Street was the reviewing stand, occupied by officials and designated welcome of the troops. Thence the parade wound its way to the hill residential section, past the army and to the Hudson County Boulevard. At the Hudson tube station the non-resident members of the regiment entertained for Newark to take part in another celebration.

After the parade the soldiers went to the army, where they were served lunch by the War Camp Community Service.

Among the marchers was Father John Murphy, pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church, Jersey City, and chaplain of the regiment. He is said to be the only chaplain in the 78th Division with the rank of captain.

WILSON MEMORIAL DAY MESSAGE CALLS ON U. S. TO CHERISH LIBERTY

Must Never Forget Duty Imposed by Those Who Offered Lives for Principle.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—PRESIDENT WILSON has cabled the following Memorial Day message to the American people:

"My Fellow Countrymen: "Memorial Day bears this year an added significance and I wish, if only by a message, to take part with you in its observation and in expressing the sentiments which it inevitably suggests. "In observing the day we commemorate not only the reunion of our own country but also now the liberation of the world from one of the most serious dangers to which free government and the free life of men wherever exposed.

"We have buried the gallant and now immortal men who died in this great war of liberation with a new sense of consecration. Our thoughts and purpose now are consecrated to the maintenance of the liberty of the world and of the union of its people in a single comradeship of liberty and of right.

"It was for this that our men conscientiously offered their lives. They came to the field of battle with the high spirit and pure heart of Crusaders. We must never forget the duty that their sacrifice has laid upon us of fulfilling their hopes and their purpose to the utmost. This, it seems to me, is the impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day.

"WOODROW WILSON."

PRESIDENT TO SPEAK IN PARIS CEMETERY

Wilson Will Place Boy Scouts' Wreath on Memorial in France To-Morrow.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—President Wilson will deliver his Memorial Day address in an American cemetery at Suresnes, in the suburbs of Paris, it was announced at the White House to-day. The President will place a wreath on a memorial for American soldiers buried there. It will be one of the wreaths sent to the American cemeteries in France by voluntary contributions of two cents each from the 25,000 boy scouts in this country.

From Flanders to the Vosges and from Northern France to the ports in the south Memorial Day will be observed.

Gen. Pershing will participate in ceremonies at the cemeteries at Dun au Meuse, Beaumont, Romagne and Thiaucourt. All these places were in German hands a year ago. Romagne is the largest American cemetery in France, between 10,000 and 12,000 being buried there.

A total of 70,000 American graves will be decorated throughout France. The Quartermaster's Department has furnished thousands of small flags.

BABY THEY WANT IS ASH-CAN BOBBY, NOT A SUBSTITUTE

baby carriage, had a cradle made to order and ordered a supply of silk clothes. Bobby arrived in due time at their home and was placed in charge of a nurse. Three weeks later agents of the aid society sent for Mrs. Finebloom and demanded the return of Bobby, saying they had another baby for the couple.

The Fineblooms didn't want another baby. Finebloom even offered to put $5,000 in a bank in trust for Bobby and guaranteed to add to it for four years until a nest egg of $20,000 had been set aside for the erstwhile inhabitant of an ash can. The society was insistent that Bobby be returned, urging that the laws of the State provided that children of one religious faith should not be placed in families of a different faith.

When Mrs. Finebloom was told that religious differences stood between her and Bobby she declared she was a Christian, and that her husband, although of Jewish parentage, was a Christian Scientist.

The aid society took the matter before Magistrate Groch, who decided in favor of the Fineblooms. After the court proceeding Finebloom and a probation officer engaged in an argument over Bobby with the result that Finebloom got a black eye.

The matter was quiet until to-day when the Fineblooms' attorney, Daniel W. Blumenthal, was served with a writ of habeas corpus. The society maintains that the foster parents of Bobby are only holding him under what is known as boarding-out agreement, and that under its terms Bobby must be returned to them upon demand.

The Fineblooms say they signed complete adoption papers and unless the woman who left Bobby in the ash can claims him, no one can take him from them.

FRENCH ACE RISES 31,000 FT. BREAKING ALTITUDE RECORD

Adjutant Casale Beats British Captain's Highest Mark by 500 Feet.

PARIS, May 29.—Adjutant Casale, a French aviator, in a flight for altitude ascended 31,000 feet. This constitutes a world's record. Adjutant Casale during the war had numerous flights in the air and was credited with having downed twelve German machines.

The former airplane altitude record was made by Capt. Lang of the British Army in January, when he rose 30,500 feet. Lang carried a passenger.

ROGET BEATEN BY NC-4.

Revised Figures Reduce French Flyer's Distance.

PARIS, May 29.—The French press was mistaken in its statement that the recent flight of Lieut. Roget, the French aviator who flew to Morocco last Saturday, had beaten the record of the American seaplane NC-4 in flying from Newfoundland to the Azores, according to M. Breguet, the constructor of the airplane in which Lieut. Roget made his flight.

M. Breguet points out that the distance from Paris to Rabat is not 2,200 kilometers (1,365 miles) as was stated, but 1,500 kilometers (1,118 miles), and that Roget started from a point several kilometers south of Paris and landed before reaching Rabat. The NC-4's flight from the long jump from Trepanay to Florida was 1,330 statute miles.

The elephants finally were captured after their keepers had enticed them from the woods with peanuts and bananas.

HAWKER SAYS U. S. FLIGHT WAS NOT SERIOUS ATTEMPT WITH 'SHIP EVERY 20 YARDS'

Britons at Luncheon in Australian Airman's Honor Receive Statement in Silence.

LONDON, May 29 (Associated Press).—Speaking at a luncheon here in his and Lieut. Commander Griev's honor, Harry G. Hawker deprecated the organization which had won for the United States the honor of the first crossing the Atlantic by a heavier-than-air machine. He said that it was not a serious attempt, with a ship stationed at "every twenty yards."

Hawker continued: "If you put a ship every fifty miles it shows you have no fight in your motor." This was greeted with absolute silence on the part of the men gathered at the luncheon, numbering between 250 and 300, nearly all of whom were British. A few minutes before they had cheered heartily the statement that the American Navy aviators had been successful in reaching Europe.

Lord Northcliffe, who is ill, sent a message, which read: "Were I present, I would like to raise my glass in congratulation of our American friends on their careful and characteristic preparations and for their fine record-breaking flight to the Azores and Lisbon. They have still left to us the problem of a direct flight from America to Europe."
